

PPE

Employee Name:

1. PPE is the first level of protecting an employee from hazards on the job site. T / F
2. Employees are not required to provide their own PPE. T / F
3. A hazard assessment must be performed by the employer to determine if hazards exist or have the potential to exist. T / F
4. Ordinary prescription lenses are an acceptable form of eye protection. T / F
5. Cotton, leather, and plastic gloves provide different levels of protection depending on the job task. T / F
6. Body protection is designed to protect against physical and health hazards. T / F
7. PPE is only required to be inspected once a month if used. T / F
8. Employers are responsible for replacing intentionally damaged or lost PPE. T / F
9. Hazards are determined by assessing the tasks, and/or a group of employees performing identical tasks. T / F
10. Most tasks require safety glasses to have a side guard. T / F